Although every town was not represented, the prospects of getting started look good. There will probably be a change in the circuit as Putnam had forfeited its franchise last season on account of dropping out before the season closed. It looks also as if the Andems of North Grosvenordale would be replaced by some team, as they were not represented at the meeting, and it is understood that they are dickering for entrance into another league. Tattville, Jewett City, Wauregan and Dayville will be in the league again with Moosup and either Baltic or Sterling. It looks more like Baltic, as the talk in that town has been somewhat strong during the last Regan of the Electric five of Webster.

As manager of the Jewett City basketball team, I wish to answer Mr.

Ryan that I am always ready to receive and accept all challenges from all basketball managers from Connecticut and Massachusetts. By looking over my basketball score book, I find my team played the Webster Electric five in Jewett City February 13, 1911. I wish to say that I expected it would be a fast, clean basketball game, but it looked more like a ping-pong game—Jewett City 34 1-2, Webster 9, professional rules; amateur would have been twice the score. If Mr. Regan means business, as manager of the Jewett City basketball team I would be only too glad to accommodate the Webster manager any time.

Tours truly,

been somewhat strong during the last few weeks.

One thing certain is that every town must be represented by strictly home talent or there will be no league at all. The four remaining teams left to the league are certain that they have had enough of going out and hiring semi-professional players and have realized that the only way to keep the sport alive is to stick to home talent.

In Tattvilie the club will be in new hands. The Pinochle club will try to furnish the fans with good games this coming season and as they always make a success of everything it is a good bet that Taftville will be represented by a good team.

Another meeting will be held in Jewett City two weeks from Sunday and at that time it is believed that the formation of the league will be settled. Those present at the meeting were Abel L. Reeves, president; V. O. Derosiers of Jewett City, Louis Dion of Waurgan and John B. Benoit of Taftville.

BANTAMWEIGHT CHAMPION. Won Decision Over Frankie Conley New Orleans in 20-Round Bou.t

George V. Tuohey of Boston writes
The Bulletin as follows:
I am arranging a tour for Ali Hassan, the newest of the Turkish wrestlers to reach this country, and wish to show him in your city. Hassan, unlike the other "Terribles," is not a mountain of beef, but on the contrary is a magnificent specimen of physical development, a wrestler of the highest skill, who has made good in this country against the best and who is in line for matches with Hackenand Gotch, Hassan is open to meet the best men available in your city, barring nobody, under catch as catch can rules.

Hassan weighs 202 pounds, stands 5 feet 11 inches, and is but 22 years of age. He was from early boyhood a member of the wrestling staff of Abdui Hamid, the deposed sultan, with whom he was a great favorite. When the sultan was banished to Salonica during the Young Turk movement two New Orleans, Feb. 26.—Johhny Cou-ion's title to the bantamweight cham-plonship of the world was firmly estab-ilshed today, when he won a clear de-cision over Frankie Comley, claimant, at the end of a 20-round bout at the West Side Athletic club. Conley was outclassed and only in two rounds did he have a shade the better of the con-test.

The men weighed in at 116 pounds three and a half hours before the fight. Six thousand people witnessed the contest. Tommy Walsh of New Orleans was the referce.

The men were in frequent clinches. Here Coulon was superior and his short body blows told on the Kenosha lad. Conley's right and left swings went wild, except in a few instances. In the fifteenth round Conley sprained his left wist, and after that the Chicago boy had little trouble in landing telling blows on his face and body. The fight opened with Conley the aggressor, but Coulon's legs saved him from punishment.

Shiffing of interest to the obscure stocks and the usual caution exhibited by traedrs in getting out of the market over Sunday were probably the primary motives for selling.
